The Senior Class is giving the Frieze warm support. Hot stuff!

If variety is the spice of life, unfortunate are the men who regularly patronize the Tech lunch room.

Some rash person has suggested that the pure atmosphere of Huntington Hall be analyzed. Horrors!

The necessity of vacating the Gymnasium once more calls attention to the great disadvantage of the present uncertainty in regard to the future location of the Institute.

Although at present unavoidable, this uncertainty must, so long as it exists, prevent permanent building and thus retard very markedly the growth of Technology. A consideration of this fact, together with the great loss caused by the necessity of making temporary improvements, as will be necessary in this case, should induce every effort to a prompt settlement of the question of moving.

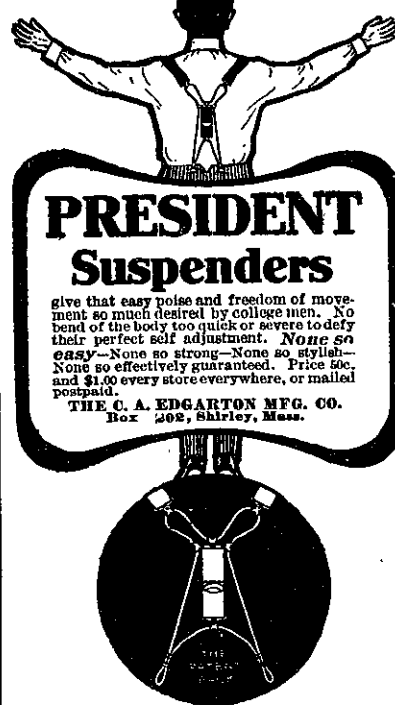

Messrs. Houghton, Mifflin & Co. bring out in April a novel by Ovic Bates, who was at the Institute last year as a special student. The book is a yachting story, and is called "A Madeap Cruise."

Missouri Club Dinner.

The Missouri Club held a dinner at the Union last Friday evening. Acting upon a suggestion made during the evening, the Club will take charge of Saturday evening Komers on March 25. It will be the Western Night. While any man will be welcome, all men who have at any time resided west of Buffalo are especially urged to attend. Some Western man who is prominent at the Institute will be invited to speak. An enjoyable evening is promised by the Missouri Club. Tickets may be procured of Mr. Powers.

At a meeting of the Chess Club held in Room 26, Rogers, Saturday, at 1 P.M., it was announced that the Club is to play the Andover Chess Club in the near future.
