clothes at very reasonable pricesSuits and Overcoats from $35

This is the best time of the ENTIRE YEAR, for you to have your FULL DRESS, Tuxedo, or Double-Breasted Frock Suit made. We make a Specialty of these garments and make Special Prices during the slack season. Then again, we have an extra large assortment at this time, and the Tailors always make their work better when not rushed with work and we are willing to figure a little closer to keep our help busy. Stop in and let us show them to you. And oblige

Yours Respectfully,

The Harvard Geological Department will send two expeditions to Iceland this summer, instead of one, as was expected. Professor T. A. Jaggar will lead one and Dr. W. C. Farrabee the other. Professor Jaggar's party will be concerned mainly with Geology. The other will deal with Archaeology.

The Junior Annual at the University of California, published by the Class of 1905, is said to be the most expensive publication of its kind ever issued. The receipts amounted to $9,609.50 and the expenditures to $9,405.35.

Cambridge University graduates voted on the question of the abolition of compulsory Greek in examination. The result declared shows that the proposal to abolish Greek was rejected by 1559 votes to 1052. Premier Balfour voted in favor of compulsory Greek.

At Harvard recently a pamphlet upon expenses has been published. The average cost of board at the two dining halls, Memorial and Randall, is $156 and $117 per year respectively. The pamphlet gives statistics to show how cheaply men can get through. It states also what assistance a man can expect.

Harvard men have organized a club to entertain visiting athletic teams. This is indeed highly commendable. Often the visiting team gets but the merest glimpse of the University and the city, and carries away impressions entirely false. Whether a club is necessary to extend such hospitality is questionable.

The Faculty of Illinois are planning to give the editor of the college paper four hours, and his assistants, three hours of University credit.

Professor Jenks of Cornell, has been mentioned as the next President of Northwestern University.
