That the Tech Union is a firmly established feature and convenience of our student life can be denied by none, and the belief of In Demand. our president, Dr. Pritchett, that such a meeting place, as the Union has grown to be, could be successfully conducted at Tech, has been decisively justified. Nevertheless few of us realize just how great is the demand for the use of the Union. Since the first of March there have been only some half dozen evenings when the rooms were not in use, and during the period from last Monday to Junior Week every date has been engaged.

E. H. S. CLUB DINNER.

The English High School Club held its first dinner at the Union last Friday evening. The affair was a decided success. There were thirty-four men present, including Head-Master J. F. Casey, and Instructor A. P. Walker, of the English High School, Messrs. Bradley, Humphreys, Mahan and Sawyer, and four "future Tech athletes" from the High School. The Club has sixty-nine members, sixteen being members of the Institute's Instructing Staff.

Messrs. Casey, Walker, Sawyer, Humphreys, Bradley and Mahan spoke. Mr. Mahan said that he has found the English High athletes to be clean and honest, and good-natured both in victory and defeat. After the dinner the following interesting and entertaining program was given:

Recitation, "Court Scene from Merchant of Venice," H. S. Wonson, '07; Piano Solo, L. J. Killion, '05; Clog Dancing, C. W. Coffin, '07; Banjo Solo, O. G. Fales, '07; Piano Solo, H. S. Wonson, '07; Banjo Duet, O. G. Fales, '07, and L. J. Killion, '05.

E. D. Boles, '07, acted as announcer, and always managed to tell a few stories between the acts. The evening closed with cheers for the two institutions represented.

SHOW SCORE NOTICE.

All those who desire scores of "The Chemical Maid" should see some member of the management as once, as the edition will be limited to 500 copies. The price will be $1 per copy.

The latest news from Dr. Tyler states that he is in good health and is enjoying his trip abroad.
