This is the one time when a Tech man can and must forget the grind of study. It is the saving grace of our college year. You Junior Week. cannot avoid the atmosphere of festivity, it is everywhere, and you must inevitably forget yourself and enter into the spirit of what will be by far, the most successful of Junior Weeks.

TECH NIGHT.

A representative of the Park Theatre will be at Machlachlan's between 1 and 2 p.m. today, to take reservations for seats for Friday evening. Those intending to go should see this representative then in order that they may obtain seats together. The advance sale has been large for Friday and men should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity or they may be disappointed with their tickets.

BRITISH EMPIRE ASSOCIATION.

There will be a dinner of the British Empire Association on Tuesday, May 2, in the Tech Union at 6.30 p.m. All British subjects and all other Tech men of British descent are invited to attend. It is requested that all who have not already signified their intention of being present, will leave their names at Box 15, Cage.

1905 Tech Reunion.

year, in all its details, the Tech Reunion of 1904. Such gatherings should be held only at intervals of five or ten years, when men at a distance will make unusual effort to be present. Certain features of the Reunion, however, may well bear repetition, notably the class dinners, and the class spreads on the afternoon of graduation day and the general participation on that evening of alumni and undergraduates with their friends in the "Tech Night Pop Concert." Let us hope that Technology men will do their part in establishing permanently the custom so happily inaugurated at the first Tech Reunion of a general observance of Commencement by the alumni.

John Tobin has been chosen manager of the 1908 Football Team for next year.
