SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS.

The Boston Society of Civil Engineers is an organization of usefulness in its line. The aims of this society are practical. At the regular meetings, papers are read by authorities upon engineering subjects. A bulletin is issued regularly, in which notice is made of current engineering work. Questions from members concerning difficulties they have met with in practical work are published in this bulletin, and any other members who may be able to answer or advise are requested to do so. When the topic is one of general interest, the answers are printed in the bulletin, otherwise are sent to the individual questioner.

THE SOCIETY OF ARTS.

The 610th regular meeting of the Society will be held at 22 Walker, on Thursday, April 27, at eight o'clock. Mr. Philip W. Davis will address the Society on "Storage Batteries."
