WILLIAM A. NICHOLS, PRINTER, 208 SUMMER ST., NEAR

There are few of us who have not in one way or another looked forward to these last three weeks of the term as time for our hardest study. Some indeed who have worked steadily up to the present time, have earned the right to an easy preparation for the finals, but the great majority expect to do anywhere from ten to thirty weeks work between now and June. However bad such methods may be in principle, and perhaps also in practice, we can at least have the satisfaction of knowing that our sacrifices were for those undertakings which made Junior week so eminently successful.

We doff our caps to the husky willow wielders of the Technique Team who took our measure so thoroughly Saturday morning. We understand they are to take on a team formerly known as the World's Champions or Collin's pets and we want to say that our money is on "Technique."

Through the malicious perversity inherent in type the review of the Show in this number is accredited to H. S. L. We do not know who H. S. L. may be, but we have assured ourselves of the fact that Mr. Seaver wrote the article.

Modern facilities were tested in a recent shipment of electrical apparatus to Mexico City, Mexico. The General Electric Company of Schenectady, N. Y., were informed by telegraph of the burning of a power house, and ordered to send complete new switchboard equipment. Within seven days the apparatus had been assembled and sent the 3,500 miles and was being installed.
