TECHNOLOGY CLUB.

At the Technology Club on Wednesday evening, Lieutenant-Governor Guild talked on "The Reconstruction of Cuba." The talk was in a measure confidential, in that it was to some extent, a forecast rather than a narrative of past developments. The meeting was one of the most interesting of the year.

ARCHITECTURAL SOCIETY.

The Architectural Society held a well attended and enthusiastic Smoker, at Tech Union, last Wednesday evening. Professor Bartlett was the guest of honor, and spoke of the value of ever keeping one's chosen ideal in mind; the more prominently it was brought forward, the greater a man's possibilities of success. The Executive Committee reported that the Annual Dinner of the Society will be held Saturday evening, May 6, at the Old Elm.

MEMORIAL TO THOMAS M. DROWN.

Plans are being made to erect a memorial to the late president, Thomas M. Drown, of Lehigh University. It will take the form of a club house for the faculty and students, and will be erected at a cost of $80,000. President Drown was formerly connected with Technology. In 1885 he was made Professor of Analytical Chemistry, and shortly afterwards head of the Chemistry Department. In 1895 he resigned, to accept the Presidency of Lehigh. A memorial has been prepared by the Faculty of Technology, and will shortly be published.
