COOPER'S
SPRING
NEEDLE
DERBY UNDERWEAR

FOR MEN OF
REFINED TASTE

Is an underwear
that appeals to men who wear good things. It is made of a fabric of remarkable elasticity, manufactured on the famous Spring-Needle Machine made by Charles Cooper and patented in nine countries.

The garments made from this fabric are of the finest yarns and their hygienic value is unsurpassed. They always retain their original shape even after the hardest wear.
From first to last they maintain that same elegant, silky feel and easy comfortable and natural fit. They are made in two-piece and union suits, and in various sizes, weights and colors.

Be sure to ask your retail dealer for the genuine Cooper Spring-Needle Underwear.
If he doesn't keep it refuse to purchase until you have seen our booklet "T" and samples of the Spring-Needle fabric.
They are yours on request.

This trade mark is on every garment. Look for and insist upon it, or you will get one of the "other kinds" that is not "just as good."

DEVILED HAMWhen you strike off into the woods, see that in your pack basket or in the bow of your canoe you have a sufficient supply of Underwood's Original Deviled Ham. A small can and a couple of slices of bread, or, better still, cold toasted bread (toast should be buttered after it has become cold), make a satisfying and delightful lunch. In camp it is always indispensable, either for emergencies or the regular table.
It may be bought at any good grocery, but be sure you see on the can THE LITTLE RED DEVIL. There is only ONE Deviled Ham — Underwood's Red Devil Brand. All others are imitations, but imitations in name only, as the goods commonly labeled and sold as potted or deviled ham, made as they are from the odds and ends of the packing house, are no more like Underwood's Original Ham than chuk is like cheer.
