There is something about our clothing which gives it a decided and attractive individuality—perhaps the combination of style, fit, shaping, patterns—all these count in the appearance of a garment. Our new Fall lines are now on our counters and this is a good time to purchase while the stock is fresh and all sizes represented. We call special attention to the handsome patterns in suits for young men.

Castle Square Theatre.

Of all the plays made from books during the past quarter century, "The Prisoner of Zenda" is undoubtedly the most popular. It is now some ten years since E. H. Sothern first appeared as the manly Englishman and his princely double, and the play during that period has been almost constantly before the public. At the Castle Square this week it will be handsomely staged with attractive scenery and costumes, and its lengthy list of dramatic personae will necessitate the engagement of many extra players in addition to the regular stock company. The dual role of Rudolf Rassendyl and the prince will be played by John Craig, and as the Princess Flavia, Lillian Kemble may be expected to give one of her most charming impersonations.

Tremont Theatre.

"The County Chairman," George Ade's clever pictorial comedy, which has but one week to run at the Tremont Theatre, has come into its own as a genuine American play. Its seasons have been marked by crowded houses, which welcomed with hearty laughter the many clever and witty sayings, droll situations and humorous episodes which George Ade has cleverly framed together under the above title. No play has been so widely discussed for many a season, and its entertaining features need no bell-ringer to advertise it. It is a matter of regret to a vast number of playgoers in Boston and vicinity that the present engagement is so brief.

READINGS BY PROFESSOR SWAIN.

Professor Swain has announced that he will give a series of readings from standard authors on Wednesday afternoons from 4 to 5 o'clock, in 6 Lowell, beginning December 5. This course has been arranged by Professor Swain in order to interest the men in good books and good reading and men taking Civil or Sanitary Engineering are invited.

The condition of Captain Dan Hurley of the Harvard eleven was so much improved yesterday that he was allowed to dress and take a little exercise in the City Hospital grounds. In the official bulletin issued yesterday Drs. Nichols and Bulard say he will probably be in shape to leave the hospital on Saturday.
