SPORTSMEN'S SHOW.

This year's Sportsmen's Show of the New England Forest, Fish, and Game Association to be held in Mechanics Building, Boston, for two weeks, begins Christmas Day, and instead of showing the last of the buffalo, will show the first of the buffalo to be domesticated and used as draught animals. A lake has been constructed in the main hall, where sportsmen will give fly casting exhibitions and hold contests in canoes; in the triangular hall a brook will flow from a dammed pond where beaver, otter, and muskrats will dwell, through a duck pond where water fowl will be shown. Caged wild animals, skins, collections of birds, and all the fascinating concomitants of wild life will fully occupy the tremendous space. Motion pictures, talks by well known and interesting students of wild life, and other entertainments will fully fill every day.

REDUCED RATES TO THE WEST.

Owing to the numerous inquiries in regard to reduced rates to points west of Chicago during the holidays, the Western Passenger Association has issued certificates to Registrar Humphreys, by use of which students of the Institute who intend to spend the holidays at points West, may travel at much reduced rates. These certificates may be obtained at the registrar's office, where the registrar's signature must be attached in order to make them valid.

AT THE THEATRES.

Tremont Theatre.

The new play by Richard Harding Davis, in which Manager Henry W. Savage will present Raymond Hitchcock, will be produced at the Tremont Theatre, beginning with a special Christmas matinee. It is a farce in three acts, dealing with the experience of a number of Americans during the Graeco-Turkish War, and is called "The Galloper," the title being an expression employed by war correspondents to describe a despatch bearer who first gets to the wire, and files his "story." The droll, refined humor of Mr. Hitchcock captivated thousands during the run of "The Yankee Consul" the past two seasons. It is believed that this role in the straight comedy provides ample opportunity for his work.

Castle Square Theatre.

The management of the Castle Square Theatre has selected "Ransom's Folly" for the Christmas week offering at that house. The play will be accurately staged, each act representing a picturesque western scene. The week will open with a holiday performance on Christmas Day, and the play will be repeated every afternoon and evening from Monday to Saturday.
