AMERICANS AT OXFORD.

The Right Rev. J. C. Hartzell, Methodist Episcopal Bishop of South Africa, has been at Oxford for the purpose of meeting the Rhodes scholars from the United States. The Bishop visited the various colleges, met the scholars in their own rooms, and learned something of the feeling among them in regard to their environment and the scholastic outlook.

He reports the general feeling one of satisfaction and hopefulness. The type of men was high and they were received in a good spirit by the other university men. The Americans are making excellent records in scholarships and athletics. H. J. Rose of Quebec recently took both the Craven and Ireland honors in classics, a record unequalled for many years.

No Tech men have yet been appointed Rhoades scholars.
