EDITOR OF THE TECH:

The next sixteen pages of the Grind Department of Technique 1907 are ready for preparation.
Everyone who has heard a joke at the expense of the faculty or student body, who has thought of a jingle which would bring a semblance of a grin to the faces of the respected members of the instructing corps or the submerged tenth (meaning those who grind out nuggets in the sub-cellar of Rogers), please hand it in today. If you hear any student kick about Technique ask him how much he contributed to make it a success; if you know any Co-ed, tell her that there is a book called Technique on which she can use her literary energy. Don't be stingy. Let us all laugh. Hand in all grinds at the Cage for the Grind Editor of Technique.

The Review aims to develop closer relations among Institute men, and to stimulate their interest in the work of the College.

It is in no sense an engineering magazine, but deals broadly with the problems of Technological Education and the responsibilities of the professional man.
