SPEAKS AT BIG KOMMERS.

that he may get a living but that he may lead other men by virtue of these qualities, by virtue of his humanity and his good will. Besides doing the thing he is trained for, a Tech man should also help in the uplifting of politics wherever he may be. He should stand by the best people, and make politics and our daily life finer, purer, nobler and higher.

SOPHOMORE LIST POSTED.

A corrected list of the Sophomore class has been posted on THE TECH bulletin board in Rogers' corridor.
This includes all men who had signed the Constitution and paid their dues ($1.00) for the year before Saturday at 1.15 p.m. If any mistake has been made see W. A.
Adams or H. Webb at once, or leave a note for them at the Cage some time today.

The limit set for signing the Constitution and paying dues is 4 p.m. today. Make sure that your name is on the list of the class before that time. You can leave dues at the Cage addressed to W. A. Adams, or sign the Constitution there at any time before 4 o'clock. Instead of mailing the ballots as intended it has been decided to leave them at the Cage. They will be ready some time on Wednesday, Feb. 28.

BANJO CLUB HONORED.

The Banjo Club has gained a distinction that no former club at Tech has enjoyed, in that it is to take part in the annual Festival Mandolin Concert to be held in Jordan Hall, March 28, under management of G.
L. Lansing and H. F. Odell. The Banjo Club will render two numbers, and the rest of the program will be furnished by the celebrated Boston Ideal Club, the Boston Operatic Society of sixty voices, the Langham Mandolin Orchestra of thirty-five pieces, Lansing's Mandolin Orchestra of thirty-five pieces, and Mr. Charles T. Grilley, humorist. Mr. Lansing and Mr. Odell have arranged a final number, in which the Banjo Club will take part, to be rendered by a grand orchestra composed of two hundred mandolins, guitars, and banjos.
