AT THE THEATRES.

Tremont Theatre.

The first week of Mrs. Leslie Carter's engagement at the Tremont has fulfilled all expectations. Mrs.
Carter's new play, "Adrea," the second week of which begins at the Tremont on Monday, is striking for its romantic plot, its superb stage settings, and for the interpretation of its title role by the great actress. In it Mr. Belasco has fairly outdone himself, and Mrs. Carter is ably seconding his efforts. Mrs.
Carter's engagement at the Tremont is limited to four weeks.

Majestic Theatre.

A multitude of New England playgoers have already enjoyed "Mizpah" at the Majestic Theatre, where that moving drama has entered upon its fourth week. It is a play to please everybody and thus happily achieves the distinction of being not only a footlight offering that commends itself to church-going people, but that it is genuinely attractive in its dramatic effectiveness and beauty.

Successor to Henry Guild & Son, 28 West St. Boston

For the benefit of out-of-town playgoers the management of the Majestic has arranged a special plan for answering promptly all requests for seats. There will be the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

Castle Square Theatre.

"The Fatal Card" is one of the most popular melodramas ever seen in Boston, and its revival at the Castle Square Theatre next week will recall to many playgoers the long run that it enjoyed at the old Boston Museum some eight or ten years ago. Its plot is realistic, fun of action and movement. The week after next "The Edge of the Storm" will receive at the Castle Square its first production in this country.
