AT THE THEATRES.

Majestic Theatre.

The beautiful Scriptural play "Mizpah," enters upon the last week of its Boston and New England engagement on this evening. This beautiful and spectacular production is one of the finest which has been offered to Boston playgoers in a long time and has attracted theatre-goers no less by the beauty of its scenery than by the stirring dramatic story and by the excellence of a strong cast.

Castle Square Theatre.

The attraction at the Castle Square Theatre this week will be "Prince Otto," one of Robert Louis Stevenson's picturesque romances. Several years ago this play was acted successfully by Otis Skinner, but this will be its first performance in Boston. The title role will be played by John Craig and the heroine by Lillian Kemble. During the week of March 19, "The Edge of the Storm," an English melodrama originally produced by Forbes Robertson, will be played at the Castle Square.

A collection of Russian documents and state papers has been presented to Columbia University by M. Witte, the Russian premier. The collection includes all the Russian state papers now in print, as well as copies of the Russian codes and reports on agriculture, census, finances and Siberian affairs. M. Witte last September received from the university the degree of doctor of laws.
