COMMUNICATION.

The Editors do not hold themselves responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TECH:

I want to say a word in regard to the Field Day banners for the Union.
The banners of Field Days for 1902, 1903, and 1904, were wisely made of one size and kind and evidently it was the intention to keep all those banners of a kind. However, when it came to 1905 an entirely different and, I may say, very poor type was chosen. The banners as they stand are of two types, and if a precedent is not made of that first type there are likely to be several more. It is my idea that to establish a precedent and rule in that regard would be a wise thing.

Will you suggest as to who should take action in this matter for it is one that concerns the decoration of the Tech Union greatly. Will it be a subject for Class action or what?
M. B. HALL, '08.
