ELEVATOR

Gentlemen:

Lighter weight overcoats are now in order, and most of us thoroughly appreciate the ease and comfort of the change from the clumsy winter coat to the more graceful and easier handled light weight.

Fashion has decreed that soft grays with more length than formerly, and fashioned more to the body, are to be the thing.

There's good reason for the change; the new lengths will cover the longer sack suit, the cutaway, or the frock coat.

Scots & Company, having anticipated the demand from good dressers for something distinctive in light weight top coats, are prepared to show models and fabrics which are beyond criticism.

Prices $25 to $45

SPEAKS ON THE BISON.

Mr. Ernest Harold Baynes, Secretary of the American Bison Society, addressed the Society of Arts in 22 Walker, Thursday evening, on "The Bison; Our Grandest American Animal." Mr. Baynes told how the wholesale slaughter of this valuable animal reduced it from many millions to its present pitiful number. There are men living today who have killed 10,000 buffaloes.

There are several farms that have small herds of bison. These are, however, all for sale, and, unless something radical is done, there will be no bison on the face of the earth in a few years.
