CIVILS ELECT OFFICERS.

The Civil Engineering Society held a meeting Monday afternoon in 11 Eng. B to elect officers for the ensuing year. The results were as follows: President, H. B. Hastings, '07; Vice-President, R. C. Albro, '07; Secretary, M. E. Allen, '08; Treasurer, T. W. Orr, '08; Executive Committee, J. M. Barker, '07, chairman; H. P. Farrington, '07, S. Allen, '07, H. J. Ruggles, '08. Program Committee, E. W. James, '07, chairman; R. C. Albro, '07, H. B. Alvord, '07, and C. H. Boylston, '08.

CONSOLATION GAMES FRIDAY.

The Athletic Association will hold a Consolation Meet next Friday at 4 p.m. at the Field, for all men who did not win points in the Spring Meet. Prizes are to be given in each event, and, as Tech's best men are eliminated, there is an excellent chance for the non-point-winners to show their ability and have a good time. The events will be a 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard run, 1-mile run, and broad jump.

Experiments begun at Yale some years ago to extend the system of co-operative societies to the fullest extent among the students are being copied widely among the universities of the country. The Yale dining hall, which ran $60,000 behind three years ago, is now making about $10,000 a year.

CIVIC CLUB.

The Civic Club will hold a dinner on Tuesday, May 8, at 6.30 p.m. at the Tech Union. This meeting is an important one as the election of the officers for next year will take place. At the dinner Professors Dewey and Albers will speak on subjects of general political interest today.

The Secretary of the Club has received a draft of the constitution for the Intercollegiate League of Civic Clubs. The object of this league is "to serve as a bond of union to those men in American Universities and Colleges, who desire to further the intelligent study of public affairs, who wish to increase the interest of students in the duties of citizenship, and who are desirous of raising the standards of life in the United States. Non-partisan in membership and aims, it stands for honest and efficient public service." Any club or society of students in a college or university pursuing similar ends may be admitted to the membership of the league.

The constitution will be read and discussed at the dinner, and, providing it is satisfactory, the Civic Club may join the league.
