MAJESTIC THEATRE.

Henry E. Dixey, than whom there is no more talented and magnetic actor in America, came to the Majestic Theatre for two weeks beginning Monday evening, April 30, in a delightful comedy in which he has this season appeared at the Madison Square Theatre, New York, for 123 nights, which has been meeting with phenomenal success in Chicago and the two or three other cities in which Mr. Dixey has appeared since leaving New York. The play, a dramatization of Harold McGrath's "The Man on the Box," is brimming over with human interest.
