

UNDERWOOD'S Original DEVILED HAM

When you strike off into the woods, see that in your pack basket or in the bow of your canoe you have a sufficient supply of Underwood's Original Deviled Ham. A small can and a couple of slices of bread, or better still, cold toasted bread (toast should be buttered after it has become cold), make a satisfying and delightful lunch. In camp it is always indispensable, either for emergencies or the regular table. It may be bought at any good grocer's, but be sure you see on the can THE LITTLE RED DEVIL. There is only ONE Deviled Ham—Underwood's Red Devil Brand. All others are imitations, but imitations in name only, as the goods come mostly labeled and sold as potted or deviled ham, made as they are from the odds and ends of the packing house, are no more like Underwood's Original Ham than chalk is like cheese. Our Book contains a lot of unique and practical receipts. We will send it FREE.
