DR. TUPPER TO SPEAK.

Dr. Geo. W. Tupper of Cambridge will address the Technology Y. M. C. A. meeting in the Parish Hall of Trinity Church on Thursday at 1.30 P.M. Dr. Tupper is well fitted to address Tech men, because of the exceptional opportunity he has had to study student life in many of the Universities of both America and Germany. He is a ready speaker, frank and sincere, and will have something of value for every man who hears him.

CATHOLIC CLUB.

The Rev. Henri de la Chapelle will address a meeting of the Catholic Club in 16 Rogers this evening at 8 o'clock on "The Present Religious Crisis in France." This talk will be a most timely one as the new French law will go into effect December 12. All students are invited to attend.

TECHNOLOGY CLUB.

The Technology Club will listen to a Smoke Talk by Professor Henry E. Crampton, of Columbia University, on "A Naturalist in Tahiti," Friday evening, Dec. 7, at 8 o'clock. The talk will be illustrated with lantern slides. Members have the privilege of bringing guests.

COLONIAL THEATRE

Elsie Janis is the newest star to win Boston favor, and she has scored an unquestioned success in "The Vanderbilt Cup." The new musical comedy is as rapid as an automobile race, and it rushes on to positive prosperity. Miss Janis is especially clever in her imitations of popular players of the day, and the audiences cannot begin to get enough of this feature. Indeed the whole show is a lively one, and the college boys have not been slow in finding that out.

PARK THEATRE

Clara Bloodgood will be back again in Boston next week, and at the Park Theatre she will present Clyde Fitch's newest play, "The Truth." Boston well remembers the hit which she made here in "The Girl with the Green Eyes" which was written by this author, and many nice things are expected from this later work. It has been splendidly received throughout the West and now it comes to Boston after a chain of unbroken artistic successes wherever it has been presented.

President Jordan of Leland Stanford has resigned the position he holds as a member of the simplified spelling board advisory committee.
