COMMUNICATION.

is not afraid to pose as the executive head of this popular sport. On the other hand, if he is prompted by modesty to shun the limelight, let him be drawn forth from his seclusion and be introduced to us all; thereby he might arouse our sympathies, rather than our suspicions. At any rate we want the man produced that we may know him.

Or perhaps we know him too well already?

INTERESTED.

SHOT PUT RESULTS.

The shot put, open to the members of the 1910 tug-of-war team, resulted as follows: 1st, Bartlett, 30 feet 7.5 inches; 2d, Kollen, 29 feet 6 inches; 3d, Shaw, 29 feet. Bartlett and Kollen may obtain their medals, the regular bronze "Tech" medal, at the Cage at any time.

The contest did not produce what Tech needs most on its team this year, namely, a good shot-putter. With the exception of this one position, the team promises to be a well balanced one, and it is hoped that any man in the Institute who has any ability in this line, will not hesitate to consult Coach Mahan or Captain Richards both of whom can be found at the Gym any evening after 4 P.M.
