TREMONT THEATRE.

No greater success has been chronicled in Boston in many years than the production of the new musical comedy, "Coming Thro' the Rye," which was seen for the first time at the Tremont Theatre, Monday night—from the beginning to the final curtain, the performance was wholly delightful, and encores and curtain calls were freely and enthusiastically bestowed upon the many charming musical numbers and upon the clever work of the people in the company.
The story of "Coming Thro' the Rye" is delightfully original, and it contains dialogue of the most brilliantly witty kind. The music is of the catchy, "jingling" sort which is quickly memorized, and much of it is bound to become very popular. There will be a special matinee of "Coming Thro' the Rye" Christmas, and regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given during the three weeks engagement.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

Beginning Monday, Dec. 24, at the Majestic Theatre Bertha Kalich under the direction of Harrison

Grey Fiske, will appear in Langdon Mitchell's translation of Jacob Cordin's Yiddish drama "The Kreutzer Sonata." The play deals with Jewish life in Russia and America and is said to be strikingly realistic in its presentment of Jewish conditions. Madam Kalich who will be remembered for her wonderful portrayal in "Monna Vanna" last season, has won in the role of Miriam Friedlander a success which has duplicated the wonderful triumph of the play when it was produced in Yiddish at her own theatre in New York City. "The Kreutzer Sonata" was her greatest success during her career as the leading Yiddish actress in New York City. Mr.
Riske has gathered a notable company to support his star and the stage environment is in every particular of the most artistic quality. There will be an extra matinee on Christmas Day and the regular Saturday matinees during Madame Kalich's engagement.

J. O. Zubia, with 31 miles 3460 feet to his credit, leads at present in the contest for the Kistler cup at Pennsylvania, offered for the greatest number of miles swam in the varsity tank this season.

To The Point
MOORE'S
NON-LEAKABLE
FOUNTAIN
PEN

While it is true that a good fountain pen will not leak if properly cared for, it is also true that it is not always possible for the most careful to treat it as they ought, while the careless are in continual trouble. These leaking troubles are all obviated in Moore's Non-Leakable Fountain Pen. This pen is true to its name, it's air-tight and cannot leak. It is also clean to handle and clean to fill, and for these reasons is a favorite among the ladies, travellers and students, as well as among business men.
