Pennsylvania has more foreign athletes on her different 'varsity athletic teams than perhaps any other college in the land. In baseball she has for her leader Gerrit Judd, the centre fielder, who hails from Honolulu, Hawaii. Judd is also a football player and a poloist.
Another crack athlete from the same country is Dan Ranear, the swimming team star. He is also one of the best fancy diving experts in the world. On the football team last fall was Takaki, the Jap, who was almost certain of a job at end until the physical department of the university made him quit on account of a weak heart. An intercollegiate champion is Guy Haskins, present title holder for the mile run, and one of the best distance men in the country today. Haskins is a New Zealander. An athlete who should in the future gladden the hearts of Pennsylvanians with his work is Hunter, the Australian, sprinter, swimmer, broad jumper and rugby football player. He has already proven his ability as a swimmer and rugby football player. In sprinting he has an authentic record of 94-58. in the 100-yard dash, and there is little doubt of his broad jumping ability. In addition to this list of stars there are foreigners on the gymnastic, wrestling, swimming, fencing, cricket, rugby and soccer teams who hail from all climes and countries.
