taking care with which Major Briggs, '81, has run the Council. It is doubtful whether another man could fill the position so well. Coach Mahan is also deserving of a great deal of credit for the work he has done in promoting athletics "for sport's sake." But the whole system would be a failure but for the fact that the average Tech man enters athletics simply for the fun and the exercise he gets out of them. This spirit on the part of the men themselves is to be seen in the squad which turned out last week for spring training—the largest squad that the Institute ever had. Technology may lose or win but, the spirit with which sports are gone into makes defeat practically as much of a pleasure as victory—for it is always "the Race," and "not the Laurel" that gives the true sportsman his pleasure. That is why Tech's system of athletics is a success, and why Tech men have a right to call themselves true sportsmen.
