COMMUNICATION.

To Penn Men,
The fall smoker of the New England Alumni Association of the University of Pennsylvania will be held at 7:30 tonight at the American House, Hanover St.
The occasion will be absolutely informal and we want every Penn man in this vicinity to be present. Annual election of officers will be held at this smoker instead of at the annual banquet which takes place February, 1908.
Communicate at once with W. RAY BALDWIN, Secretary.
650 Tremont Bldg., Boston.

DR. MANN TELLS WHY MEN FAIL.

Also Praise: Dr. Grenfell's Work.

In his talk to the Y. M. C. A. yesterday, Dr. Mann said: "There has been a lot of talk lately about men in high positions failing to do their duty. They do not realize that they are stewards, and when a strain comes, or a temptation, not even public opinion can keep some men straight; and this is the greatest force in the world next to faith in God."

Dr. Mann said of Dr. Grenfell: "He is not an orator, but a very simple speaker. He will tell you about his work in Labrador. Dr. Grenfell took up this work because it was the hardest thing he could find to do for Christ."

DEAN BURTON MEETS FRESHMEN.

"Drawing as a language" was the subject of Dean Burton's talk to the freshmen on Wednesday afternoon. The Dean pointed out the great importance of drawing in every branch of engineering, illustrating his talk by lantern slides of drawings made by cave dwellers and the ancient Egyptians on stone and ivory. Some of the bones from which the photographs were taken are estimated to be over 12,000 years old.

COLLEGE PRESS MEN DINE TONIGHT.

New England College Papers at Smoker.

The New England Intercollegiate Press Association will hold its annual smoker this evening at the Copley Square Hotel. There will be a supper followed by talks and discussion.

The speakers will be Edward Stan-wood, Editor The Youth's Companion, on-magazine publication; F. B. Sibley, Boston Globe, on editorial writing; Harold Walter Lovett, Advertising Agent, on advertising and circulation; and Frank Gorham, Boston Globe, on news writing.

There will be representatives present from all the local papers including the Tufts, Harvard, Boston College and Boston University papers. THE TECH will send a number from its board.
There will be present editors from the boards of the Trinity Tripod, Williams Record, Amherst Student, Bowdoin Orient, The Dartmouth and probably The Brown Daily Herald, the Worcester Journal and several others.

The officers of the association this year are President, Henry Wm. Hoole, editor-in-chief of THE TECH; secretary-treasurer, Arthur L. Robinson, editor-in-chief of The Bowdoin Orient; executive committee, W. G. Smith, editor of The Bates Student.

FIELD LOCKER ROOM OPEN TODAY.

An opportunity will be given today to any who may wish to do so to get into the locker room at the field and get out clothes or other material that they may want to have before the opening of the track season in the spring. The occasion will be the opening of the field house on account of the interscholastic run which will take place today starting from the field.

This run is to be given under the auspices of the M. I. T. cross country association. It will start from the field at 3:30 o'clock. Most of the schools around Boston have entered and team and individual prizes will be given.

ATHLETES ATTENTION!

In order to obtain the best results in athletic contests, it is important that you should have the best implements.
They may cost a trifle more, but it pays. Many a match has been lost by the use of poor tools, so why not have the best Tennis Racket and Ball, Foot Ball, Basket Ball, Running Shoes, Skates, Hockey Sticks, Sweaters, Jerseys, etc. Our goods have character—our trade-mark means something.
