ATHLETES ATTENTION!

In order to obtain the best results in athletic contests, it is important that you should have the best implements.

They may cost a trifle more, but it pays. Many a match has been lost by the use of poor tools, so why not have the best Tennis Racket and Ball, Foot Ball, Basket Ball, Running Shoes, Skates, Hockey Sticks, Sweaters, Jerseys, etc. Our goods have character—our trade-mark means something.

TRACK SUPPORT.

nity to try for the position. There is still a good chance for any one who will come out and do hard work, as up to the present time little work has been done in the competition.

Any men who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity should communicate with the track manager immediately by leaving a note at the Cage indicating their candidacy for the position.

The date of the annual indoor inter-class games which are to be held in the Gym has been postponed until Friday, January 10, on account of the original date coming so soon after the close of the Christmas vacation. The meet will be run off on the evening of that day and all the regular indoor events will be contested.

1911 MANAGERS.

Business regarding the election of next year's managers of the class teams was settled at the Freshman class meeting yesterday. Nominations for football, track, and tug-of-war managers must be left at the Cage before 1 o'clock Saturday, addressed to 1911 Class Directors.

Roger M. Spencer has been appointed manager of the class baseball for the coming spring.

KINNICUTT ON WATER SUPPLY.

Professor L. P. Kinnicutt 1875 is conducting important investigations of the reservoir and brook waters of the city of Worcester. These waters, which constitute the water supply of the city, are subjected to a sanitary analysis, including a chemical and a bacteriological examination. The new sanitary laboratory where these water analyses are made has been fitted with entirely new apparatus, and is probably one of the finest laboratories in the United States.

INSTITUTE INSTRUCTOR ON LINCOLN.

Mr. Truman H. Bartlett, instructor in modelling at the Institute and author of important works on Rodin, Brimmer, and Millet, has written an essay on the portraits of Lincoln which has just been published in connection with a biographical essay on Lincoln by Carl Schurz.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS.

Manufacturers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and Francis R. Hart 1889, Treasurer of the Institute.

Preceding the dinner will be held the annual business meeting of the association at 6 P.M. at the Hotel Brunswick. At the meeting will be read the reports of the Advisory Council on Athletics, the committee on school, the executive committee and the Walker Memorial committee, together with other reports.

The dinner will be one hour later in the same hotel. A cordial invitation is extended by the association to all past students, whether members of the association or not, to be present at the dinner. The cost of the dinner will be $2.00 per plate.

TECH MAN R.R. PRESIDENT.

Samuel M. Felton 1873, former president of the Chicago and Alton Railroad, has been elected president of the Mexican Central Railway Company. Mr. Felton is noted as a railroad man and had been at the head of the Alton road since 1899. In 1868 he began his railroad career, and he has been connected in official capacity with 16 different railways.

PROF. WINSLOW ON LAW.

Assistant Professor Winslow is author of a treatise on the work done for health and safety through the various law-making bodies during 1906. This is printed in the Year Book of Legislation published by the New York State Library.
