ARCHITECT'S EXHIBITION.

drawings. Every available inch of wall space is to be utilized and consequently the exhibition will be the most complete that the department of architecture has ever had.

As one novel feature, a silhouette has been made of each member of the fourth-year-class, and the collection will be hung as a frieze in one of the rooms. The fourth-year men will have their thesis work on exhibition on their drawing tables, and it is also rumored that some of the numerous rough-houses of the men will be reproduced for the edification of the visitors.

The exhibition will remain in place for several days after the reception so that ample opportunity will be given all the students of the Institute to view it.
