TECHNIQUE BOARD COMPLETE.

Forrester Barstow Avery, Clifford Chase Hield and Harold Lockett were appointed a committee to judge the art competition. Frank Frederick Bell was chosen treasurer to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Richard Frederic Goodwin, Jr.

The balloting for statisticians resulted in the election of R. F. Goodwin, Jr., and William Howard Duffield. H. Lockett was elected society editor. The 1910 Technique board is now complete with the exception of the art department.

A meeting of the editorial board will be held Tuesday at 4.00 o'clock for the purpose of organization. An editor-in-chief and a business manager will be elected and work will be arranged for next year.

COMPANY C. WINS DRILL.

The annual prize drill of the corps of cadets was won last night by company C. The winning squad will be given a dinner under the auspices of their officers, Captain L. G. Rowe and lieutenants H. R. Wilbur and Henry Schreiber.

The individual drill was won by H. C. Davis of Company B, R. W. Runels of Company D taking second honors. Gold and silver medals were presented to the winners by Major Wheeler. Major John Bigelow, U. S. A. retired, Lieutenant M. L. Brett, U. S. Coast Artillery, Fort Andrews, and Captain P. C. Harris of the general staff, U. S. A., inspected the battalion for the U. S. War Department. Commissions and warrants were issued to the students who had been appointed officers during the year.

After the drill, according to the annual custom, more than two hundred of the freshmen gathered in front of Rogers Building. A huge bonfire was built directly below the steps and the white gloves and collars used during the preceding year were burned in the flames.

After the bonfire the students paraded through the downtown streets to celebrate the last drill of the school year.
