1913 DINNER AND PIPES

The freshman class pipes have arrived and will be distributed at the dinner next Thursday evening. There are many reasons for putting off the date of distribution until this time.
In the first place, it is the opinion of many in the freshman class that the victory on Field-Day was never properly celebrated and it was suggested by some members of the 1913 class that the pipes be formally lighted on the night of the dinner. The committee in charge of the 1913 class pipes have reported a very small sale so far, due to the lack of interest of the 1913 men, or as somebody suggested, they are too young to smoke yet. The pipes cost $2.85 and $3.45 and are well worth the price asked. They are straight stem, B. B. B., round bowl, and are very attractive in appearance. So far only fifty have been sold among a class of 400 students. The committee has disbanded and further orders will be taken by N. Eichorn. The pipes will be given out at the freshman dinner.
