

GENERAL COLLEGE NEWS.

Another meeting of the amputators of the football rules is necessary before it will be ascertained just what kind of a game is to be played on the college gridirons next fall. Half a dozen changes have been decided upon.

Cornell did but slightly better against Michigan than did Syracuse in the dual meet Saturday. The win of the half-mile by Putnam, the only event Cornell won, was fast. The Wolverines have a good team, with Horner and Craig the stars.

Walter Camp was the one who advised Yale to decline to send its wrestling team to the intercollegiate championships, and as a result it is expected that a new wrestling association, consisting of Harvard, Brown, Yale and Princeton, may be formed.
