THE ARENA

Chamberlain '11 got mad when they wouldn't measure his long practice throw at Middletown Saturday, so he broke the Tech record on his next try by throwing over 115 feet.

Bacon, Wesleyan's star hurdler, ran a powerful race in the low hurdles, neither Cummings nor Peal had the least chance for first.

The weight events certainly made the Wesleyan men open their eyes. And Tech only had two men entered, Bray and Chamberlain against six of their opponents.

Allen, the pole vaulter, made a rather bad break when he passed 10 ft. 9 in. and failed at 11 ft., but it turned out all right, since Greenleaf beat out the nearest Wesleyan man.

H. Greenleaf 1912, Tech's star point gainer, is certainly coming right up to the front in the broad jump.

Capt. Allen missed third place in the discus by three inches. He did not enter the hurdles, but took second in the broad jump.

E. H. Lorenz 1905 and A. R. Hunter 1905, both old cross-country men, represented Tech among the officials. Several times they forgot that they were officials and let out a whoop of victory for Tech.

Mt. Watkins, father of H. G., the winner of the two-mile run, went on the trip with the fellows. He's the one royal rooter of Tech's track team.

When Tech cleaned up the distance runs, the fellows began to smile, but when we took two firsts in the weight events and Greenleaf got first in the broad, the enthusiasm could not be down.

Did everyone see how Dartmouth came out in the meet with Harvard? Score—Harvard 91 5-6. Dartmouth 34 1-6. Perhaps Tech will be counted in on the Intercollegiate.

GENERAL NEWS

TELEGRAPH NEWS OF THE MORNING.

WEATHER REPORT.

Forecast for Boston and vicinity.—Monday unsettled, cloudy with occasional showers.

Baseball? Oh, yes, Boston still has two base-ball teams. If one looks through the standing of the American and National Leagues he will find the name Boston, but he will save time by beginning his search at the cellar end. The Red Sox are in sixth place with seven games out of seventeen to their credit; the Doves are also in sixth place with six out of sixteen. The Sox can slam the ball all over the lot, but when hits mean runs they don't show up. Two and three men left on bases is a common occurrence. The Nationals have started on a long trip, but neither away or at home have they showed any signs of classy ball playing.

Just what power will come to the new king of England is shown by the enormous area of the empire over which he rules and the number of people who live under his flag.

In round numbers, according to the last estimated census, the total area of the British empire is 11,868,834 square miles and the population is 396,768,371 souls.

Of this the population of the United Kingdom, consisting of England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland and the Islands, is but 41,976,827, and the area in square miles is 121,391.
