RADIOS WILL MEET

tonight and then refreshments will be served.

Tickets For Banquet Now On Sale

The New England Amateur Wireless Association will be the guest of the M. I. T. Radio Society at the banquet to be held February 12 at 6:30 o'clock in the main dining hall of Walker Memorial. Many men prominent in Radio work such as Professor Pierce of Harvard, Professor Bush of the Institute, Professor Richard of the Wireless Specialty Co., and H. P. Maxim, president of the American Radio League, will address the meeting. After the main addresses of the evening have been delivered, the remainder of the time will be spent in promoting acquaintance between the members of the Technology society and their guests. To this end an orchestra has been provided and several reels of cartoons will also be shown. As a record attendance is expected, members of the society will get the preference in securing tickets. Tickets were placed on sale yesterday at the Co-operative Society in the hands of members of the Radio Society, and in all the principal wireless stores in Boston, at the price of $1.50.

TRACTOR MAKES LIGHT WORK OF CLEARING PARADE GROUND

The terrors of deep snow do not daunt Charles Cooper of the force of the Superintendent of Buildings and Power. Early Saturday morning, those who were in the vicinity of the Institute were attracted by a sputtering and banging that could portend but one thing—tanks! Investigation proved that the noise came from a small tractor that was gyrating about the parade ground. A large snow plow had been attached to the tractor and the machine was making its way bravely up, down and across the field, leaving in its wake a path that was cleaner than human hands could make. Two men seated on the tractor guided its course as the little monster, spitting fire and black smoke, made its way. Two more men lounged on the plow with all the nonchalance of a plutocrat riding in a limousine. At the corners the machine spun around in a manner to make a freshman drill squad sit up and take notice. In a few minutes the parade ground was criss-crossed with footpaths, and the machine made its way noisily back to its resting place behind the Institute.

turn them in at the Combined Musical Clubs' office and, if the signups are sold to any on the waiting list, the money will be refunded to the original purchaser.

Program of Concert Announced

The concert, which is to be held in the big ball room, will commence at 8:30 o'clock and will last until 9:30. The program for the concert is as follows:

Will Dance in Both Ball Rooms

After the concert the hall will be cleared for dancing and the music will start at 9:45 o'clock in both ball rooms and continue until 2:00 o'clock. The same music at the same time will be played in both rooms. It is the especial wish of the management that the dancers use both rooms impartially, and do not stay in one because of its size. The orchestra in the big ball room is a twelve piece aggregation, personally conducted by Mr. Reisman; that of the Princess ball room will consist of six pieces, conducted by a leader of considerable renown in musical circles in Boston. Four pieces is all that is ordinarily required in the Princess room, but the Clubs have secured the six pieces in order that complete satisfaction may be assured.

The order of dances is as follows:

1. One Step Somebody
 2. Fox Trot Wond'ring
 3. Fox Trot A Chinese Lullaby
 4. Fox Trot Peggy
 5. One Step Who Did It?

Intermission Lasts Half Hour

The supper hour is placed from the sixth to the eleventh dance. Between the eighth and ninth dances there will be a half hour intermission. The management wishes to emphasize the fact that in order to avoid over-crowding, loss of time, and consequent disappointment, the dancers should plan to get their refreshments at some time during the longer interval between the sixth and eleventh dances. By this method of distributing the number over the time allotted, better service will result to the satisfaction of all.

substituted a style "a la Bret Harte". The refreshments themselves will undoubtedly cause a surprise, as the customary ice cream and cake will be supplanted by eatables of a distinctive Western character, the exact nature of which the Californians refuse to state until later.

Lucky Couple Will Win Prizes

The tickets for the dance, which sell at one dollar and a half, can be obtained at the Co-operative Society or in Walker Memorial. Each one is numbered and at some time during the dance there will be a drawing to determine which couple gets the prizes. The holders of the lucky number each receives a prize.
